

Sourcing Legal Timber 2.0

Free Conference | 15 March 2018 | Near London

Sign up at nepcon.org/events

You are invited!

NEPCon invites you to a special event on March 15 about the future trends and tools in connection with legal sourcing of timber products. We plan to dive into the following topics (subject to change):

08.30-09.00	Registration
09.00-09.30	Welcome and opening notes
09.30-11.00	Session 1: EUTR implementation and enforcement Enforcement officials and industry players will share their experience with implementing the regulation. What have been the main milestones, challenges and success stories over the past five years? Q&A and panel discussion included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Office of Product Safety and Standards (UK Competent Authority) • Robert Weich, Sales & Group Compliance Manager, Tradelink Wood Products • More to be announced
11.20-13.00	Session 2: Free tools There's free information and tools out there but what is it? How can it be used in a due diligence process? We'll look at some of the key platforms and discuss how they can be used together. Q&A and panel discussion included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pedro Moura Costa, Founder and President, BVRio Environmental Exchange • Christian Sloth, Responsible Sourcing Programme Manager, NEPCon. • More to be announced
14.00-15.30	Session 3: Future Trends We'll explore emerging topics, ranging from new technology and innovative ways of using existing technology helping companies conduct due diligence to communicating compliance. Q&A-session and panel discussion included: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Charlie Watkinson, Operations Manager, Agroisolab UK • Andrew Dudley, Founder and CEO, Earth Observation • David Hopkins, Managing Director, Timber Trade Federation
15.30-16.00	Closing remarks
16.00-17.00	Network and drinks

Sign up here. The event will be held at WWF's Living Planet Centre near London, UK.

We will update the agenda on a regular basis, but you can already sign up for the event now. It is FREE and refreshments will be provided.

This conference is part of the project "Supporting Legal Timber Trade" funded by the EU LIFE Programme and UK Aid from the UK government. Donors are not responsible for any claims or views presented in this material.